Dear Judge Neal:

Transportation agencies are entrusted to properly maintain and construct roads and streets in their community. The Roads Scholar and Road Master Training Programs were developed to increase the skills of our transportation workforce. Employees are trained in the basics of construction and maintenance as well as communication and management practices. The Kentucky Transportation Center is excited to announce the following Marshall County Road Department employee(s) have completed the Roads Scholar and/or the Road Master Training Programs this year:

The program award luncheon honoring the graduates will be at the Rough River State Resort Park, 450 Lodge Road, Falls of Rough, KY 40119, on Thursday, December 5, 2019. Registration for the event will begin at 11:00 a.m., with lunch at 11:30 a.m. (Central Time). We cordially invite you to attend and we ask that you extend an invitation to your Fiscal Court, as well as the graduate's supervisors. We will be taking group photos at the end and submitting them to your local newspaper.
