

AUTHORIZING RESOLUTION
MARSHALL COUNTY FISCAL COURT

Whereas, the Economic Development Administration (EDA)'s Economic Adjustment Assistance program has made available American Rescue Plan Act funds for the purpose of assisting communities and regions with economic recovery, resiliency, and revitalization in the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic, and

Whereas, the County of Marshall and Kentucky have seen a significant uptick in both unemployment and substance use disorders during the COVID-19 Pandemic,

Whereas, the EDA has set aside EAA funds specifically for communities and regions transitioning away from a traditionally coal-driven economy (a designation that applies to the County of Marshall), and

Whereas, the County of Marshall is part of the 42nd Judicial Circuit, and

Whereas, the County of Calloway also supports collaboration on this effort,

Whereas, The County of Marshall intends to provide the infrastructure, support, and opportunities necessary to ensure that the community's economic growth provides quality employment opportunities for all job seekers, including those in treatment, recovery, or counseling who are seeking "second chance" employment;

NOW THEREFORE, be it resolved by the County of Marshall Fiscal Court as follows:

The County of Marshall agrees and resolves, in collaboration with the 42nd Judicial Community Corrections Board, to support their application to the EDA EAA program in the Winter of 2022 for the economic development and recovery housing initiative that will establish a 120-bed recovery housing campus for men and women, formal pipelines to re-employment of program participants.

Approved by the Marshall County Fiscal Court this 1 day of February, 2022.
