It is mutually understood that each party's foremost responsibility is to its own citizens. This Agreement shall not be construed to impose an absolute obligation on any party to this Agreement to provide aid and Assistance pursuant to a request from another party. Accordingly, when aid and Assistance have been requested, a party may deem itself unavailable to respond and shall so inform the Requesting Agency. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to alter, amend, or nullify any legally required duties or obligations of either party, nor shall anything be construed so as to be in conflict with any state or federal laws or regulations.
- B. Procedures for Requesting Assistance – Requests for Assistance shall be made by an Authorized Representative of a party to an Authorized Representative of the other party. C. Inspection of Records – Assisting Agency agrees that in addition to providing all backup documents as required for mutual aid invoicing; it shall make its records regarding costs and expenses for assistance provided under this Agreement available for audit and inspection upon request by the Requesting Agency and any state or federal agency, and shall maintain such records for such time period as required by law.

SECTION IV

ASSISTING AGENCY'S EMPLOYEES

A. Rights and Privileges - Whenever the Assisting Agency's employees or agents are rendering aid and Assistance pursuant to this Agreement, such employees shall at all times remain the responsibility of the Assisting Agency and retain the same powers, duties, immunities, and privileges they would ordinarily possess if performing their duties within the geographic limits of the Assisting Agency.

B. Workers' Compensation - Requesting Agency shall not be responsible for reimbursing any costs, damages, or benefits to Assisting Agency's employees or agents due to personal injury or death occurring during the periods of time such employees or agents are engaged in the rendering of aid and Assistance under this Agreement. To the extent that immunity does not apply, each party shall bear the risk of its own actions, as it does with its day-to-day operations, and determine for itself what kinds of insurance, and in what amounts, it should carry. Each party understands and agrees that any insurance protection obtained shall in no way limit the responsibility to indemnify, keep, and save harmless the other parties to this Agreement.

SECTION VI

AMENDMENTS

This Agreement may be modified at any time upon the mutual written consent of the parties. Additional agencies may become parties to this Agreement upon the acceptance and execution of this Agreement.

SECTION VII

HEADINGS
